

Understanding Our Changing Times Through The Eyes Of A Theatre Artist: A Life Changing Lecture Series

A two-part lecture series by Thurman E. Scott

20% off
your ticket
Use Code #123
at TheatreMartia.com

- Learn how to see the complex changing times we live in through the eyes of a theatre artist.
- Using examples from history and from our daily lives, master teacher of acting and creative process Thurman E. Scott will share a creative analysis of our past and future, and explore the issues we struggle with today that undermine our success, confidence and hope.
- Learn techniques to see reality, have clarity and integrate your discoveries and new energy into tangible steps you can take in your everyday life to achieve hope and accomplish your dreams!

Tuesday, June 23rd & 30th, 2009
7:30 pm

The Actors Theatre Workshop
145 West 28th Street, 3rd Floor

$20.00 per lecture
$10.00 for students with current student ID

Purchase Tickets: www.tinyurl.com/ArtistLecture

For more information:
outreach@ActorsTheatreWorkshop.com

Thurman E. Scott is the Artistic Director, Executive Producer and Founder of The Actors Theatre Workshop, an award-winning non-profit theatre, community center and educational institution that serves homeless children, professional theatre artists and people from all walks of life. He is an established leader in the American theatre with a wide reputation of respect for his cutting-edge directorial work, award-winning acting and innovative, successful community-based training and educational programs. At ATW he has evolved artistic disciplines that provide tools to change and develop individual potential and has proven over and over that creativity is the great equalizer and unifier among human beings.